GRADUATE STUDENT PRIZES

Shirley Bard Rapoport Essay Prize

This essay prize of $1,500 is awarded every year for the best essay by a graduate student in the English Department. Morris Rapoport established this endowed prize as a memorial to honor his beloved wife and lifetime partner, Shirley Bard Rapoport, and her love of writing and literature.

- Michael Miller for his essay, "Narrative Embedding in Mary Shelley's Frankenstein: Internally-Constructed External Frames and Emergent Narrative"

Margaret C. Ostrum Summer Research Grant

- Meina Yates-Richard will travel to the American Antiquarian Society in Worcester, Massachusetts to research black nationalist writings, agricultural periodicals, and pre-1820 visual representations of the West Indies.

Caroline S. and David L. Minter Summer Research Grants

- Hannah M. Biggs will be traveling to the World of James Herriot and the Yorkshire Museum of Farming in England to research Herriot's drafts of his 1930's Yorkshire-located, rural veterinary novels and research English agricultural periodicals.
- Rodrigo Martini Paula will travel to the Vilém Flusser Archive in Berlin to research Flusser's correspondences with French visual artists and his unpublished theories of translation.
- Lindsay Sherrier will travel to the Harry Ransom Center at the University of Texas at Austin for archival research on early modern masques, dramas, and costume designs.

Chair's Best Dissertation Prize

Each year this prize is awarded to the best dissertation in the English Department.

- AnaMaria Seglie for her dissertation "Sacred Dominion: Anti-Catholicism and the Romance of U.S. Imperialism, 1820-1900"
